

Janet Spreckels Study Abroad Award Application

Janet Spreckels was a German exchange student to UNC Asheville from the University of Heidelberg in 1996. Her time at UNC Asheville was formative and life-changing and left her with many memories of our strong faculty and generous campus culture.

After graduating from the University of Heidelberg, she went on to earn a doctorate and hold positions of junior professor at the College of Education in Freiburg and full professor at the College of Education in Heidelberg. This award will provide a stipend for a student from a German-speaking country who will be studying at UNC Asheville. Applicants from any field of study may apply.
