

UNIVERSITÉ DE CAEN NORMANDIE

SUMMER SESSION 1: LANGUAGE & SPECIALIZATION(S)

2 weeks: June 10 - June 21, 2024

Program

Week 1: Intensive French (22.5 hrs)

- The objective is to build skills in comprehension, production and interaction in writing and speaking. This is done by integrating the work on prosaic mechanisms, grammatical structures and lexical elements corresponding to the studied language acts.
→ Evaluation: a certificate of participation will be issued to participants.

Week 2: Specialization) (22.5 hrs) - Students can choose between the three following specializations :

- French language and culture
The module combines courses of French language practice and preparation of visits, as well as educational excursions organized by the FLE professors'.
  - Level A1 | A2 : Travel in Normandy
  - Level B1 | B2 | C1: FLE and History.→ Evaluation: a graded certificate will be issued to participants
- Jean Monnet Module : Memory and Future of the European Union
This module aims to understand the European construction (memory) and its challenges (future) through a program that is multidisciplinary (law, history of law, etc.), participatory and part of a totally innovative pedagogical approach. The module offers students the opportunity to register either for a videoconference, the summer school, or both.
The teaching language is French, and a minimum B1 level is required for the international participants.
For more information about the module and the registration to the videoconferences.
→ Evaluation: a graded certificate will be issued to participants
- Didactics of French as a Foreign Language (FFL)
> NOTE: As this module is intended for teachers and future teachers of French as a foreign language, candidates may be asked to provide proof of their studies or professional background.

This module requires a minimum B1 level in French. Its objective is to familiarize the teachers and future teachers with current approaches to language didactics.

It is organized around 3 sequences: oral didactics, work on authentic documents (cinema), and the articulation between learning grammar and written and oral communication at beginner levels.

→ Evaluation: a graded certificate will be issued to participants